Social Identities

Age	Socioeconomic Status / Class	Gender	Physical Appearance
Ability / Health	Ethnicity & National Origin	Beliefs, Religion, Worldviews	Language	Sexuality / Sexual Orientation

Start by listing the roles you hold in different parts of your life.

Roles

Personal
Who am I in my free time?

about your role in social relationships, family, hobbies ...

Professional
Who am I at work?

about your career identity, workplace relationships, professional expertise...

Public
Who am I as a citizen?

about your community involvement,
civic duties, volunteering roles,
advocacy ...

Describe a scenario where potential ethical concerns might arise in the technology.

Try to think of:

- Your different roles or identities (personal, professional, public)
- Potential dilemmas or "what if" scenarios and concerns about the technology

(circle one)

I want to be able to | to know | it to be | it not to | to feel | _____

(What do you want the technology to do? What do you need it to be?)

Wish/Desire

... so that

(Why do you want that? What matters? What ethical issue / challenge comes up?)

Purpose

... because I am | I know | _____

(What about your role, identity, or perspective makes you think of this?)

Reason

Any comments?

Ideal would be
(Ideally, what do you want it to be like or do? What are scenarios that are desirable?)

Acceptable would be
(What should the chatbot be or do for you to feel it is supporting your needs? What are examples for the basic standard you expect?)

Deal-breakers
(What would you consider undesirable? What are examples where the chatbot (and its behaviour) become unacceptable or unusable? What should it never do?)

Try to think of:
- Examples of what the chatbot would be when you are comfortable using it.
- Any outcomes, responses, or behaviours that might be relevant here.
- What kinds of situations or results would raise concerns for you?
